HOUSE Size: 112 M²

PLOT Size: 232 M²

This extremely well finished stone villa sits on a private plot in the centre of this popular village. As you walk in from the street the lovely courtyard area with BBQ provides the perfect spot for relaxation and the welcome addition of a shaded private pool to stay cool on long summer days.

Entering the house from the private courtyard at the front, you enter the light and airy ground floor. Here there is a good sized open plan kitchen and dining area, an impressive arch leads to the living area with arched patio doors and with a wood burning stove and wood beamed ceilings.

Also on this level is the large shower room which also houses the washing machine and a good sized bedroom.

Wooden stairs lead to the upper floor and a further double Bedroom with a wooden vaulted ceiling. Patio doors from here lead to large roof terrace with fantastic sea views and the hidden addition of the wooden house! A unique extra bedroom or living area. External spiral stairs lead back down to the courtyard and pool area.
