This lovely village house is in a great location just off the main village square in Kefalas.

The building has been empty for some years and requires updating and full refurbishment.

Fully gated and walled, this villa has an unusually large plot offering the potential for beautiful, landscaped gardens and even a private pool is required. Courtyards and terraces surround the property.

The villa currently has one bedroom and living area in the 'main' building plus an attached building currently a kitchen and dining area. The building has wooden internal ceilings in good condition .

There is a further outhouse currently used as a store room and an attached WC.
