SUMMARY:

This lovely, modern villa was built in 2008 to a very high standard. The current owners use it as a permanent home.

The private entrance with electric gates and driveway leads from the main route from Almyrida to the popular village of Plaka. There is a garage and spacious parking areas.

The gardens are well laid out with tiered levels and lots of natural landscaping with mature trees and plants, including many olive trees.

The whole plot is fully walled and fenced and has an Irrigation system.

The villa has many external terraces and balconies with shaded areas for outdoor seating. There is also a large outdoor kitchen, BBQ and dining area. The raised pool and sun terrace makes the most of the amazing sea views. The 50M² single depth pool is mosaic tiled and has Roman steps.

The villa has plenty of storage areas both internal & external—with wood stores and a boiler room.

Simply the only option!

SUMMARY (cont.):

The interior of the villa is beautifully designed and laid out. The upper floor has a vast open plan living space with dining area and an extremely spacious fitted kitchen with a centre island.

The kitchen also has a separate utility area which houses the washing machine, dryer and additional appliances.

Each end of the upper floor has a large double bedroom. The master suite has walk in closets and an en-suite shower room. Patio doors lead to its own external terrace area.

The guest bedroom also has patio doors to the external terraces and the guest bathroom has a full bath and shower.

Also on this floor is another separate room currently used as an office area.

The lower floor is designed as guest accommodation and can be accessed both internally and from its own external entrance. There is currently a large living space, 1 bedroom and a walk in shower room. There is plenty of room here for additional bedroom space. There are also several storage areas and internal access to the garage.
